Halls guide

Your guide to all things
halls life

Ethan: Law

Daisy: English

Hello and welcome to the University of Southampton

Our student ambassadors have co-written this guide with the Residences team to make sure you have all the important information you need whilst living in halls.

They have provided their top tips on what to do, where to shop and the best restaurants while living in Southampton.

Starting University can be really exciting, but we know it can be daunting moving to a new place, so we have included where to get help and support should you need it while living here.

To ensure all our students and staff understand our expectations whilst at the University of Southampton, we have established a Student Charter which you can refer back to. This outlines the expectations, your rights, and also your responsibilities while here.

It's a core framework that supports the experience of our students and the community.

Top tip

Check your letterbox regularly as post builds up quickly

You may also wish to utilise Amazon lockers — available on or near all of our halls sites.

Please note

We cannot accept food shopping or takeaway deliveries. If you require a delivery of fresh food, you will need to ensure the courier has your contact telephone number, and that you can meet them at reception or an agreed location.

Healthcare, Wellbeing and emergency guidance

GP surgery

Registering with a local GP while at university is important in case you need access to healthcare. You can usually register with a GP practice near your term time address, while remaining registered with your home GP.

You can register with a GP surgery or change your current GP surgery online using the NHS website.

Sexual health services

The Royal South Hants Hospital in the city centre and Bitterne Health Centre offer Sexual Health Services where you can book appointments online or call for in person availability. Tel: 0300 300 2016.

Meningitis

Young adults are at higher risk of meningitis and septicaemia caused by meningococcal bacteria.

You can help protect yourself by getting the MenACWY vaccine, which protects against serious infections like meningitis. It is available from your local GP for those up to the age of 25.

Signs and symptoms of meningitis

- Fever, cold hands and feet
- Drowsy, difficult to wake
- Severe muscle pain
- Severe headache
- Dislike bright lights
- Vomiting
- Confusion and irritability
- Pale, blotchy skin, spots, rash
- Stiff neck
- Convulsions/seizures

Accident and Emergency (A&E) services

There are two hospitals in Southampton. The Southampton General Hospital (A&E) and the Royal South Hants (Urgent Treatment Centre). The U6H and U6C will get you to each hospital respectively.

Emergencies

If requiring emergency support, in the UK you can call:

- 999 — in an emergency to get the police, fire brigade or ambulance service
- 111 — for non-emergency medical advice and support
- 101 — non-emergency number to report a crime to the police

If you are on campus or in halls of residence and there is an emergency, contact the University Security team at 023 8059 3311 (the phone number is also on the back of your student ID card). Alternatively use 023 8059 2811 to report any non-emergency incidents on campus or in halls.

Firearms and weapon attacks are extremely rare but all communities need to be prepared.

If you should get caught up in an incident our advice is: RUN, HIDE, TELL. If the worst should ever happen, remembering these three words could save your life.

In such an incident, call the police on 999, as soon as you are safe and able to do so.

Maintenance and contents insurance

Reporting maintenance issues

If you ever experience a maintenance issue while living in halls, we can fix it for you. You can report issues via the Planon app — our online reporting tool. Your room has a Planon “Something need fixing?” poster with further guidance on how to report an issue.

Important: If it is an emergency maintenance issue, please contact your halls reception as soon as possible in person or on 023 8059 5777. Emergency maintenance can be reported to reception 24/7 with an expected response time being a maximum of 2 hours. Issues considered an emergency, including lift entrapments, large leaks, lighting loss or anything that poses a danger to people or buildings. If you spot anything that poses a danger to building or life, report it immediately.

Further guidance on how to report maintenance issues can be found on the Halls Life site

Contents Insurance

We provide comprehensive contents insurance cover for everyone living in halls via Gallagher Insurance. You can confirm your cover and find full policy documents on the Gallagher Insurance website.

Gallagher Insurance

Fire safety

Fire safety is very important and knowing how to prevent fires is key to staying safe in halls.

That's why we adopt best practices regarding fire systems, practice evacuations, and encourage safe use of kitchen equipment.

In the event of a fire alarm, find your nearest fire exit and walk calmly to your fire assembly point. This “Essential Information” can be found on the back of your bedroom and/or flat door. Ask at reception if you are unsure of your assembly point.

You must only return to the building when a fire warden or security officer has authorised you to do so.

Electrical Equipment

Make sure any electrical items brought into halls have either a UKCA, CE, or BSI Kitemark on the plug. You must not alter a device to have a suitable plug if it wasn't designed with one originally.

Watch our Electrical Safety Video for more guidance

Laundry and cleaning

Inspections

We carry out flat inspections throughout the year to make sure everything is in order.

Maintaining clean and tidy spaces, and reporting maintenance issues promptly, are great ways to encourage a more enjoyable stay in halls.

If you've never lived away from home before, we have lots of great tips to help you along the way!

What are halls inspections?

Cleaning

Who cleans my room?

Everyone is responsible for their own room and each flat is responsible for the general upkeep, so you can all enjoy a clean and tidy space, which encourages a harmonious environment.

We will provide your flat with a vacuum cleaner, mop, bucket, dustpan and brush for use by residents.

Our domestic services team look after the communal spaces and grounds. They clean corridors, shared kitchens, and shared bathrooms within flats every four weeks.

Find out more about cleaning in halls

Laundry

We have laundry rooms at all of our halls, which are free to use for all residents. The laundry rooms have large washing machines and dryers which can typically accommodate a week's worth of washing.

Washing machines will have auto dosing, meaning a measured dose of detergent will automatically be added to your wash. Washing machines without detergent are also available for anyone who has allergies or would prefer to use their own washing tablets.

You can check the availability and status of machines online via the WashPoint website www.washpoint.uk.

Check out the map on the back of your halls guide to locate your nearest laundry room.

Local amenities

Food, shopping and entertainment

Restaurants we love

Uni Kebab Turkish Restaurant: Burgess Road — Head here for authentic, homemade Turkish and Mediterranean cuisine, they also have tasty sharing platters perfect for sharing with flatmates and course mates.

Malvern Tavern: Winchester Road — A Greene King pub serving all of your favourite classics from dishes to drinks, they also show sports and have a great beer garden.

Centenary Restaurant: Highfield Campus — Offering authentic Sichuan and Cantonese Cuisine on Campus and only a short walk from Glen Eyre Halls.

Baboo Ji Vegetarian Kitchen: Portswood Road — Although it's a little further away, if you're into plant-based food you're going to love this vegan and veggie restaurant serving up bold Indian flavours.

Where we buy food and supplies as students

There are big supermarkets nearby, for example Sainsbury's in Portswood and Asda in the city centre, both of which also do deliveries! Aldi (Bevois Valley) and Lidl (near Archers Road) can help save you a lot compared to other supermarkets.

There are a few Chinese or Asian supermarkets around, two on Burgess Road, two on Portswood High Street and a few around the city centre. Many of them offer free delivery if you purchase over a certain limit.

Savers in the Marlands Centre, and Poundland on Portswood high street are good places to get toiletries for a lower price.

Top tip

Have a good budgeting plan so you can stay on top of your spending and avoid overspending. Budgeting apps like “Emma” can help. Or you can get tips from current students through the Student Money Champions.

Entertainment and things to do

Southampton offers plenty to do in your free time. Westquay Shopping Centre is the city's main shopping destination, with a great selection of shops, restaurants and cafés.

For entertainment, students can enjoy the cinema, bowling, escape rooms, and a range of bars, pubs and clubs, particularly around Bedford Place, London Road and Oxford Street. The city also has several live music venues and cultural attractions, including the Mayflower Theatre, MAST Mayflower Studios, and O2 Guildhall Southampton.

Sports fans can visit St Mary's Stadium, home of Southampton FC or for those in the city during the spring and summer the Utilita bowl offers domestic and international cricket action.

Banks

Student bank accounts come with an interest-free overdraft, which typically needs to be repaid two years after graduation. An overdraft, used sensibly, can help with unexpected costs and large payments.

If you have financial concerns at any point during your time at University don't hesitate to contact the Student Hub or SUSU Advice Centre who can assist with guidance and support.

We recommend international students set up a UK bank account as it can save you money and make managing your finances much easier.

Whether it be avoiding currency conversion fees, the ability to set up direct debits or making it easier to be paid for part-time work there are many benefits to setting up an account while you study at the University of Southampton.

Top tip
